Coriolanus at the Cremorne Orpheum (22-24 February)

National Theatre Live presents the Donmar Warehouse's production of Coriolanus, Shakespeare's searing tragedy of political manipulation and revenge.

"Making enthralling theater out of one of Shakespeare's best-known titles is one thing. It's an achievement of an altogether higher order to take the austere forbidding "Coriolanus" – an argumentative tragedy discussing the demands of politics and the power of the people – and turn it into a theatrical triumph. But that's exactly what Donmar Warehouse A.D. Josie Rourke has done. Thanks to an ideally dovetailed ensemble led by a scorching Tom Hiddleston, tension builds, fills the theatre and never flags throughout an all-consuming evening." Variety
