

Welcome to the
22nd Latin Summer School

at the
Education Building
University of Sydney
Monday January 18 –
Friday January 22, 2016

www.latinsummerschool.com.au

For your information

Course Material is enclosed (or can be downloaded). If you feel uncertain about the level you have chosen, there will be an opportunity on the first day to make adjustments.

Parking: If you have paid for a parking space at St Paul's College, you will be sent a parking voucher issued by the College before the beginning of the LSS. On-campus parking is also available but is very expensive.

A Map of the University is on the website and can be downloaded; it will help you find your way around the campus. If you are walking from Redfern Station allow at least 20 minutes. If you are coming by bus from the city or west, it is a 5 minute walk to the Education Building from the Ross Street Gates.

Monday morning – the first meeting will be at 9 am in New Law Lecture Theatre 024 (adults) and Education Lecture Theatre 424 (school students). If you have a fee balance to pay, it can be paid at any time on Day 1 in the foyer of the Education Building. If you want to pay before the first meeting, please arrive early so as to avoid having to wait in a queue, and have cash or a cheque made out to the Latin Summer School.

Notices will be posted daily on our Notice Board in the Education Building foyer. This year there will be two major competitions: a Neo-Latin poem translation, and several Latin prose/verse quotations. These will be distributed on Day 1 together with our newspaper: Diurna. There will be several book-voucher prizes awarded for each competition, with separate categories for school students and for adults. There are also two cash prizes of $150 each, for articles written for Diurna on a Classical subject (closing date is January 12 to be sent by email to Robert Forgács): the winning entries will be published in Diura II and Diurna III.

Accommodation: If you need accommodation, try one of the residential colleges, e.g. St John's (9394 5200); International House (9950 9800); Wesley (9565 3333); Sancta Sophia (9577 2333); St Andrew's (9656 7304); Women's (9517 5000); St Paul's (9550 7444). All are within easy walking distance and the rates are reasonable.

Refreshments are provided at morning tea time at 10.45 am. Please bring your own coffee mug to use each day. You also need to provide your own lunch. On-campus catering is available nearby at The Union, Manning and the Sports Centre. Nota bene: from this year onwards there will be no afternoon teas; student evaluations from the last few years have overwhelmingly stressed that this would be better eliminated and we have acted according to your request.

BBQ: There will be a BBQ on the last day (free of charge) at the conclusion of the morning classes. Following the BBQ there will be a final meeting in the Teachers College Assembly Hall. Prizes will be awarded for the Competitions. Also, according to established tradition, and some entertainment items will be presented.

We look forward to seeing you at the 22nd LSS. In the meantime we wish you a Happy Christmas and an auspicious and rewarding beginning to the New Year. Paul Roche and Robert Forgács,
Directors of the LSS 2016

Daily Programme

Monday: Official Opening at 9.00 am: adults in New Law Lecture Theatre 024, school students in Education Building Lecture Theatre 424

- 9.30 – 10.45      Session 1: Morning classes for all levels
- 10.45 – 11.15      Morning Tea
- 11.15 – 12.30      Session 2: Morning classes for all levels
- 12.30 – 1.30      Lunch (own arrangements)
- 1.30 – 2.30      Session 3: Guest Lectures (see next page)
- Scansion – (Tues and Thurs), or Unseens Class (Tues-Thurs)
- Special activities for school students (Lisa Aronson)
- 2.40 – 4.00      Session 4: Afternoon Classes for Levels 1, 2, 3
- Special Interest Groups for Level 4 (see next page)
- Friday afternoon:    BBQ at 12.30 pm, followed by the final meeting (Teachers College Assembly Hall) with awarding of prizes, presentations, and some entertainment items

You will receive a Guide to the 22nd Latin Summer School on Day 1 which will give the venues for classes and lectures, and other necessary details.

Guest Lectures:

1.30 – 2.30, Monday to Thursday

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
KEY NOTE LECTURE Bob Cowan ‘Oops! Accidental death in Roman Epic ’ Old Geology Lecture Theatre	Andrew Miles ‘Would the real Pontius Pilate please stand up?’	Frances Muecke ‘Montaigne in/on Rome’	Matthew Ross ‘Ownership and Possession in Roman Law: the development of the actio publicana’
	Kathleen Riley ‘Latinists of the Long Weekend: W. H. Auden and Louis MacNeice’	Dexter Hoyos ‘The Mysteries of Terminal-M: How Romans Spoke’	Robert Forgács ‘Mozart and Ovid—Mozart’s first opera Apollo et Hyacinthus (1767)’
	Scansion classes with Barbara Twomey (beginners) and Bob Cowan (advanced), Tues. and Thurs. 1.30 – 2.30 pm Unseens class with Dane Drivas 1.30-2.30 pm Tues, Wed, and Thurs
Special Interest Series for Level 4 - 2.40 pm to 4.00 pm, Monday to Thursday:
1. Kathryn Welch ‘Livia: the other side of the story: texts, inscriptions monuments’ 2. Kathleen Riley ‘Mythologies our own and epics new’: Greece and Rome in Australian Art and Architecture			